DEC AVIATION: Wisconsin's most extensive one-stop maintenance facility

Since operating safety is your first consideration in business or pleasure flying, you'll find it worth your while to schedule regular Midwest stopovers at DEC Aviation, Inc. You're always sure your equipment is in top condition when it's inspected, maintained, repaired, overhauled or modified by DEC's expert staff.

Conveniently located at Madison Municipal Airport, DEC offers general aviation the most extensive maintenance facilities and parts inventory in Wisconsin. The large, experienced staff includes licensed A & P mechanics equipped to handle any job from accessory testing to magnaflux to major airframe repair.

You can get in and out fast, too, at DEC. Modern mobile refueling units stand ready with high-performance, micro-chronically filtered Phillips fuels—80/87 and 100/130 avgas (115-145 on call) and aviation kerosene with new Phillips Fuel Additive 55MB. DEC is the only general aviation installation in the state offering jet fuel pre-treated with PFA 55MB—an important safety consideration for business flyers.

Ground service equipment includes ramp courtesy car, APU's, ground heaters and complete de-icing equipment. Other facilities and services include an FAA-approved flight school, air taxi and charter, hotel and ground transportation reservations, and direct lines to flight service, tower and weather.

Next time you're in the area, make it a point to schedule a stop at DEC Aviation—"Wisconsin's most extensive one-stop maintenance facility." PHILLIPS PETROLEUM COMPANY, Aviation Division, Bartlesville, Oklahoma 74004.
